

The Wilber Bench™

Meet Wilber.
Does your bench have a name?

Hi.

The Wilber Bench™ is commercial-quality, light, but durable. This bench might be one of the most versatile benches you can buy. It is practical, customizable, and maintenance-free. This bench can fit in anywhere, indoors or outdoors, and it can be easily secured for permanent seating needs.

Features & Benefits: Maintenance-free. Durable, powder-coated aluminum won't rust. The Wilber Bench™ can be portable or permanent.

Specifications: The Wilber Bench™ is a combination of extruded vinyl and aluminum. The vinyl seat and back come standard in White, with the option of Gray or Beige. Caps are available in most primary colors. Aluminum legs can be powder-coated most any color. Some of the more popular standard colors are below.

Perfect For: Swimming pools, tennis courts, tee boxes, athletic fields and complexes, docks, patios, decks, restaurants, general landscaping, common-use areas, players benches, parks, country clubs, schools, universities, hotels, recreation centers, theme parks, and trade shows.
